

SUNKEN LINER A WRECK.

Prins Friedrich Wilhelm, Held Up by War, to Ashore at Bergen.

Bergen, Norway (via London), Dec. 4.—The North German Lloyd liner Prins Friedrich Wilhelm, which has been lying in this port for some time, was driven ashore in a gale to-day. She is now fast on a sandbank.

The Prins Friedrich Wilhelm, a vessel of 5,000 tons, before the war was engaged in the regular service of the North German Lloyd Line between Bremen and New York. After the outbreak of hostilities she was unable to make a German port and has been at Bergen and the neighboring port of Odde.

ITALY ADDS HER PROTEST.

Joins Great Britain in Fight on New Arizona Law.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The Italian Ambassador, Count di Cellerio, called personally at the State Department to-day to lodge a protest against the Arizona Law which requires at least 90 per cent of certain employees in that State to be American citizens. The British Ambassador already has protested for his Government.

AUGUST BELMONT TELLS THE CIVIC FEDERATION OF LAW FOR WORKMEN

Wants National Body to Study Effect in 24 States to Avoid Mistakes.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the National Civic Federation opened to-day at the Hotel Astor. The program calls for a number of affairs supplementary to the main meeting to be participated in by the delegates. Beth Low, President of the Federation, opened the session with an address in which he reviewed the year's work. Following this he took up questions which the National Civic Federation will have to handle as a result of the war in Europe.

Among these is the establishment of an American merchant marine. Immigration following the war is an other problem which, Mr. Low said, should be thought about now in order that it may be intelligently encountered when the time arrives.

August Belmont, Chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Department, reported encouraging progress in the past year in the enactment of workmen's compensation laws in various States. He advocated the formation by the Federation of a statistical bureau to study the law as it is in operation in twenty-four States with the object of finding the weak spots and avoiding them in future legislation. In time the Federation hopes to have a law that will be uniform in all States and apply to all industries.

Miss Maud K. Wetmore, Chairman of the Woman's Department, reviewed the work of her division for the past year. Her report covered activities on the part of women in welfare work all over the country.

John Hays Hammond presented a report based upon a nation-wide inquiry as to the business situation and its effect upon unemployment.

Father Lilly Dies of Pneumonia.

The Rev. Hugh Francis Lilly, for many years pastor of St. Vincent Parish Church at Sixty-sixth Street and Lexington Avenue, died yesterday in Columbus, O., of pneumonia. He was seventy-three years of age. Lilly, who was of the Dominican Order, came to America from Ireland at the age of fourteen. He was ordained a priest in 1885.

PROSECUTOR OPPOSES MURDERER'S OFFER

If He Can Prevent It, Hickey Will Never Leave Auburn Prison to Give Himself to Science.

BUFFALO, Dec. 4.—Wesley C. Dudley, District Attorney of Erie County, who was the prosecuting attorney at the trial of J. Frank Hickey for the murder of Joseph Joseph, stated to-day that he would oppose any step looking to the release of Hickey from Auburn Prison, where he is under a twenty-year sentence. Hickey recently, in a letter to Thomas Mott Osborne, Warden of Sing Sing Prison, offered himself as a sacrifice for the inoculation of cancer virus to test whether the disease is contagious. "Hickey will never leave Auburn Prison, even temporarily. If I can prevent it," said Mr. Dudley. "It would have been better for the public and society in general if he had been convicted of a higher degree of murder. They may not need my consent in allowing Hickey to get out for a while, but they will get my objection."

SCHOONER OFF FOR AFRICA.

Adella T. Carleton Sails for Trade With Natives.

Laden with a full cargo of dry goods, boots and shoes, toys and supplies for missionaries, the American schooner Adella T. Carleton sailed to-day for ports on the West Coast of Africa. According to officers of the American Tropical Trading Company, this is the first of a regular service of ships that is to be established to bring to the United States trade that has heretofore been going to Germany.

It is expected it will require thirty days for the schooner to make the voyage, the first port of call being Monrovia. A return cargo of ivory furs, etc., has already been arranged for, the promoters say, and will be marketed in America. Capt. Norman W. Brown, supercargo, carries 6,000 samples of American merchandise.

Called Inmate, Acts as Own Lawyer

Frank Cullingford of No. 909 Herkimer Street, Brooklyn, acted as his own lawyer when examined before Judge Hyman in the Brooklyn County Court to-day as to his sanity. Dr. S. R. Lahey and John P. Russell of Kings County Hospital testified Cullingford, who had been under their observation, was a paranoiac, but so artfully did the accused man cross-examine the doctors, that Judge Hyman hesitated about committing him and adjourned the case until more physicians could examine him. Cullingford was arrested after having sent incoherent letters to President Wilson and Mayor Mitchell.

THIS TALE'S MORAL IS: DON'T HIT A POLICEMAN IN THE NOSE! HEED IT!

If You Don't, You're Likely to Go to Court Just Like Mr. Settenhan Did.

Policeman Art'r Everson came into West Side Police Court, to-day, with a swollen nose and blood all over his nose, new uniform. He hasn't been on the force very long. He appeared against Philip Settenhan, an athletic looking young real estate man, of No. 340 West Eighty-sixth street, charged with felonious assault. Settenhan had been out last night with his friend, Ray Kerwin of No. 138 West Forty-second Street, Horstense Zorn, a dancer, and Muriel Hudson, an actress, both of whom live at the Cumberland Hotel. They tangoed until the early morning hours and then, in Settenhan's auto, started down Tenth Avenue. Near Fifty-fifth street, Policeman Everson noticed the machine was not equipped with lighted rear lamps, so he halted the party. There are two versions of what happened next.

Settenhan says the policeman used profane language and struck at him, and he countered with a blow. The officer denied swearing, and said he made no threats. He said Settenhan jumped out of the car and tried to show off before the young women by striking him on the nose. Everson rapped for help. A brother officer arrived on the run and, thinking the famed Gopher gang, which operates in the neighborhood, was killing Everson, he drew a gun. The fracas ended by Settenhan being locked up. The two young women were in a taxi to-day in support of Settenhan. Settenhan was held in $500 bail for further examination.

—why Michigan, Kentucky, Iowa, Wyoming and North Dakota forbid selling the ordinary kind of rice

POLISHED, coated rice—according to such eminent authorities as Dr. Wiley and Alfred W. McCann—is adulterated. Each grain is coated with glucose and talc. This foolish custom was started by a rice broker who wanted to "dress up" his rice. Without knowing what it meant, folks bought it. Now five states prohibit its sale—because such rice isn't pure.

Comet Rice
Unkoted
no glucose—no talc

doesn't need washing because nothing is put on, so there's nothing to wash off. It is never touched by human hands until you open the clean, sanitary package. Try one of the recipes as printed on the carton and know how real rice tastes. You will then serve rice more often—as a vegetable, in soups, with meats, or as a delicious dessert.

Have your grocer send you a package. Tear out this advertisement now and put in your purse to remind you.

Also ask about Comet Natural Brown Rice—something new.
